

Deanna Singh

Deanna Singh is a renowned speaker and trailblazer in the field of social change, impacting over 100,000 people annually with her dynamic presence and inspirational messages. As an award-winning author, educator, business leader, and social justice champion, she has dedicated her life to creating positive change.

She holds degrees from Fordham University, Georgetown University, and the University of Wisconsin, Madison, and has received a multitude of awards and recognitions. Deanna Singh is a true inspiration and a powerful force for change.

Deanna leads four social ventures as the Founder and Chief Change Agent of Flying Elephant, all of which work towards creating a more equitable society. These ventures are united in their mission to shift power to marginalized communities, covering inclusion in the workplace, healthcare, children's literature, and leadership. Deanna's impact extends beyond her social ventures, as the author of six books including Actions Speak Louder and A Girl's Guide to Race & Inclusion in partnership with American Girl.

12420 W. Hampton Ave.,
#312, Butler, WI 53007

(631) 533-2662

www.UpliftingImpact.com

